Let's get this straight...I'm not anti govt anti banking anti law anti cops anti courts anti war anti science anti religion anti etc et al...

...on the contrary, I'm all FOR freewill choice and the consequences contained there in

I don't give a shit what you or anyone else does and I'm not laying blame on any of these things. I blame no one but ME and take full responsibility and accountability for ME

I simply CHOOSE not to participate with any of that hoopla. Just because some moron will throw me in jail for not owning a legal name doesn't mean I HAVE to use one. What he does with his freewill choice is on him, not me

I just want to live peacefully and be left alone to enjoy this life. If you wanna do the whole govt construct thing go right ahead, no one will stop you...at the same time don't try and stop me or force me to comply with a POLICY when I have no contracts and I'm not a danger to myself and/or others

I'm not an anarchist, I'm a creationist.
