Prove it!!

Were you the one that created AND registered/copyrighted the legal name?

Then you don't OWN it

What's the catch?

Everything you've done and have with a legal name belongs to the "person" that created it...and that's NOT you. The legal name is under CONTRACT as a corporation and must follow POLICY. Nothing has to be lawful if you agree that you are the legal corporate name

But my mom gave ME that name at birth, I have a certificate to prove it Your mom most likely unknowingly without full disclosure GIFTED your name to the STATE it was registered in and is corporate property. The birth cert is the receipt of donation. The vessel you arrived in, the placenta, was claimed as abandoned salvage when your parents left it behind at the hospital and the OWNERS hold ALL rights to your DNA

How is this lawful, it just can't be true?

Maxim of Law...legality is not reality

Legal and Lawful are NOT the same thing...not even close

Maxim of Law...those who shall be deceived, let them

Still in belief?

Belief literally translates to, "not knowing". Truth requires no belief system, it just is, no matter what you think or believe

Legal Name Fraud....Google that shit.
